Friends of Preston Ridge Newsletter (#2)

Dear Friends:

You are receiving this email as a result of joining the Friends of the Preston Ridge Trail. We are so pleased that so many residents and a growing number of homeowners associations have chosen to become Friends and help underwrite the work of the Friends. We wanted to get you word of several exciting things that have occurred since the start of the New Year.

1) Website -- We've gone high-tech...with the debut of our own website at www.prestonridgetrail.org. The site is now live and we encourage you to visit it often. We'll be using it to share news about the Trail, announcements about meetings and events, and provide a easy place where people can learn about the Trail and the Friends. Many thanks to Gail Bolden, a freelance web designer and Friend, who discounted her services and led the design of the site.

2) Logo -- We adopted an official logo for both the Friends and the Trail. You'll begin to see it on future Friends communication and along the trail (as signage gets funded and posted). Special recognition to Karl Von Bieberstein and Megan Smith at the firm of Newman, Jackson, and Bieberstein for their design efforts. Take a look at the new logo on the home page of the new website.

3) Next Meeting: We've schedule our next community meeting for Tuesday, May 11, at 7:30 pm, at the Campbell Green Rec Center (NE corner of Campbell and Park Hill). The agenda will include an update on the hiring of the landscape architects, news from the City on preliminary landscaping, reports on committee formation, and more. The final agenda will be posted on the website two weeks prior to the meeting, and will also be summarized on the Info Line (see below).

4) Volunteer Opportunity -- The Friends will be hosting an Information Table at an upcoming Safety Fair being sponsored by the NDNA (North Dallas Neighborhood Alliance). The event will occur on Saturday, April 17, at the North Central Police Substation on McCallum. If you have an hour or two to volunteer to help us staff the table, please contact Friends
